President's Letter to the Congregation

Dear Members,

As 2023 draws to a close, we have many reasons to rejoice! For those who have walked through our construction site or followed our updates on social media, you'll know that our church is slowly but surely becoming home again. After countless meetings and discussions by various committees, it's clear that Beaver Valley has done an exceptional job navigating the rebuilding process following the 2022 destruction. Through this journey, the old has been transformed into something new, and now, adjacent to our beautiful 100-year-old sanctuary, stands a freshly refurbished space that reflects the vibrance and hospitality of our congregation.

The past 18 months have presented their share of challenges, and I understand that many are eager to return to our beloved church. However, it's important to recognize that we have been truly blessed throughout this process. The overwhelming support from our community, both near and far, has been nothing short of remarkable. I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all members of our congregation who have contributed in countless ways. While it's impossible to name everyone individually, your contributions of time, talents, and resources have made this journey extraordinary. Together, we are creating a place that will be cherished by generations to come.

In 2024, we anticipate new beginnings and a revival of Beaver Valley as we prepare to reoccupy our building. As a council, we are laying the groundwork for a grand reopening and celebration, opening our doors to our members and the wider community. I eagerly anticipate collaborating with our church leadership and committees in the year ahead to envision the future needs of Beaver Valley and embark on a new chapter in our church's history.

As your president, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to each of you for your support and trust in guiding us through this past year. Leading our congregation and council has been an honor and a pleasure, and I am filled with excitement as we look ahead to what lies in store for Beaver Valley.

May God provide his blessings in the coming year,

David Vanden Hull

Beaver Valley Lutheran is a construction site

Members are welcome to tour the jobsite area of the church, but it needs to be arranged/coordinated with Gil Haugan. Currently, Dave Schnabel is the only authorized church representative, and he has been authorized as the on-site coordinator on behalf of the church for the rebuild. We will be happy to arrange viewing of the site at prescheduled times for any unauthorized personnel.

Thank you for your understanding.

The Rebirth that is ours.

We are fresh off our shared celebration of Christmas. Whether our circumstances this past December were perfectly easy or remarkably hard, the truth is that the full gift of Christmas has come to us all. It's all gift this promise of a Christ-child born: new beginnings for the broken; hope again for the hopeless; light shining in the darkness; captives, says the prophet, "set free."

This theme we build upon into the new year. Added to the angel's promise of a Savior born is the Epiphany vision given to wisemen who were guided on their way after meeting the child Jesus. God "with us" is the important liturgical theme which guides our worship in January and beyond.

Certainly for our congregation--eager now to get back into what will feel like a new building in most ways—we have every right to talk emotionally about a rebirth. Part of this rebirth will be to open our eyes in the first several months of 2024 and regroup a little bit....try and figure out who is "in the pews" and who are we missing. It's been a long three and half years for our membership and we must be honest that the pandemic/tornado double whammy has been a challenge.

But by any measure we have, by the grace of God-with-us, done well. We should give thanks to God for the ministry that we have been a part of even as we ached for our church home to be ours again. Much of the good from our past we have found creative ways to keep going. God has helped us stay together!

But, in addition to giving thanks for the Spirit's inspiration to keep serving in many and various ways of old, we must be open to what God might be calling us to "do" and "be" as we face forward out into a world that most students of our culture will agree is changing very, very fast.

So, what will the reborn Beaver Valley look like by the end of 2024? I don't know anymore than most of you by yourselves could know. Discovery of purpose is best done together and is best shaped through the deep and steady worship and prayer life of a trusting congregation. At our annual meeting (Sunday, January 28th, 10:45 a.m.) we will consider a new budget for the new year. More than just a vote on how we will spend our money, an approved budget is really an approval of a plan for ministry. How will the daily life of our congregation support the faith-life of its members, but also be faithful to God's call to engage this often-confusing world? Followers of Jesus are not afraid to ask these questions knowing that God is with us as we re-emerge.

As we start our rebirth year, what I am sure of is this: the "new" Beaver Valley will work to both rekindle much of what we were doing faithfully before our walk in the wilderness began as well as expect to be surprised by God and what God will need us to do in the coming years. My January 2024 prayer is that we will be just as surprised as the Bethlehem shepherds were surprised by God's gift of grace that always leads people into joyous living.

For the Beaver Valley now and soon to be, I give thanks,

Pastor Greg Johnson

Pastor Greg will be Leaving.

Yes, sometime in the coming year or so, I will be moving on to what's next. But not until we have come back to life a bit, lived in, and dedicated our new church home and done some honest visioning together so that this congregation can be confident in calling a pastor that fits its new future. (A new future, by the way, that will include some of what went well with Greg around but also a future ministry that will need to address some of the things that fell by the wayside or didn't happen well in my tenure.)

There is purpose in being intentional with this unusual transition into what is to come for Beaver Valley in the coming years. I have in my previous departures from a congregation been saddened to see the interim time after my leaving go badly. With that said, as we now get the structure of the church fully restored and get more people back into specific leadership positions in the church and have a purposeful, "visioning" Lent (beginning already on Feb. 14th!) and dedicate the building on the second Sunday of Easter (April 7th) I pray that we will have the most fun we have ever had in being God's people in this place called Beaver Valley!

I do believe this is good advice to follow: as we begin 2024, let's stay prayerfully focused upon one thing-- the wonderful, God-led work of rebirth and discovery that will come from our very selves.

Many thanks,
Pastor Greg

January Highlights

January 1st, Monday – Happy New Year!!

January 3rd, Wednesdays, 11:00 a.m. – Backpack Program Deliveries

Beaver Valley assumes the responsibility of delivering food for the school district's backpack program each January. It takes about an hour and half to go and get the empty tubs from Fred Assam elementary school, then drive to the Feeding SD building and get loaded by their staff, and then drive back to Assam elementary and unload the tubs of food (the school's staff actually packs the backpacks). Please sign up at George Boom or email office@beavervalleylutheran.org if you can help!

January 3rd, Wednesdays, 6:15 p.m. – Wednesday Worship in Beaver Valley sanctuary

With our commitment to having worship throughout the year at our Beaver Valley campus, this half hour of worship is offered throughout the fall, winter and spring for all members and guests. We will start at 6:15 p.m. sharp. A simple order of worship; piano and sometimes guitar; the lessons and Holy Communion patterns will be observed for the following Sunday. (not handicapped accessible)

January 3rd, Wednesday, 7:00 p.m. – No Confirmation – New Year's Break

January 3rd, Wednesdays, 7:00 p.m. – Adult Choir resumes

January 4th, Thursday, 6:30 p.m. – Education Committee Meeting

January 7th, Sundays, 9:30 a.m.—Worship at Boom Chapel

Boom Chapel will still be our meeting place on Sunday mornings through January. We are getting closer to being back in Beaver Valley sanctuary.

January 9th, Tuesday, 7:00 p.m. – Grief Support Group

The results of our congregation's Faith Community Nursing assessment survey made it clear that dozens of our members are interested in dealing with grief in a support group setting. Not therapy, not direct counseling, but a setting in which good, prayed-over, conversation among a few others (almost always, importantly not more than 8) allows for a deeper understanding of one's own walk through grief and the healing that does come over time within each person engaged with the broader community. Please contact Sue Johannsen or Pastor Greg if you are interested in being a part of a support group in the future.

We will be finishing up our first Grief Support Group in January by meeting again on the 9th and 16th.

January 10th, Wednesdays, 7:00 p.m. – Confirmation (meets in youth room)

January 11th, Thursday, 7:00 p.m. – Church Council Meeting

The church council will meet to conduct monthly business on this second Thursday of January. Members of Beaver Valley are always welcome to sit in on these meetings. Any business or concerns that you would like to present to the council should be made known to church council president, David Vanden Hull, at any time.

January 12th – 14th, Friday – Sunday - Women's Retreat at Joy Ranch

Women's Retreat to be held at Joy Ranch, near Watertown, January 12-14. A deposit of $50 check made out to Joy Ranch and given to Twyla Voldseth ASAP. Any questions, please call or text Twyla at 605-595-4772. All women and friends of BVLC are welcome to join us for a fun weekend of fellowship with others!

January Highlights

January 14th, Sunday, 9:30 a.m. – Annual Reports will be available

January 17th, Wednesday, 5:00 p.m. – Music & Worship Committee Meeting

Also, this will be the last Sunday to donate cash for the Sr. High youth who will use the money to buy stocking caps, gloves and warm socks to be given out on the “Christmas in January” night on the 31st.

January 28th, Sunday, 10:45 a.m. —Annual Meeting

We will get started with the Annual Meeting of the congregation right at 10:45 a.m.

PLEASE come with the report having been read so that we can move efficiently through an important meeting. Copies of the annual report will be available on Sunday, January 14th.

ANNUAL MEETING

January 31st, Wednesday, 5:00 p.m. – Church on the Street giveaway

“All Leadership Retreat”—Moved to February 4th, 2024

The year ahead will be an historic year of rebirth for our congregation. Not only will we be entering back into what will be a new building, we will emphasize the need to not miss this opportunity to “face forward” as new faces will be in leadership positions and members of all kinds will be engaged in restarting many of the ministry offerings of the past as well as taking the prayed over time to envision what our new call might be.

The Sunday February 4th “All Leadership Retreat” is intended to do nothing less than lay the foundation of much of what will be who we are into the coming years. If you’re in the church council, leadership committees, sub-committees and organizations, would you please try and be in worship on the 4th^t of February and then stay for a short coffee hour and then off to a first hour of work, then lunch, then an hour and half into the afternoon? God will bless our time together. With thanks, Pastor Greg
